THE NATHAN HALE WELLNESS CENTER-FOOD PANTRY POLICIES

- Everyone using the food pantry must complete a new request for assistance form and interview with a NHVOC person BEFORE you can use the food pantry.
- Once the form has been completed, you will be assigned the number of pre-made bags that you will be allowed to receive from the person in charge that day.
- You may visit our food pantry once a week.
- Pre-made bags will supply three days' worth of meals, if you can't use an item; you may return it to the pantry for someone else to use.
- Selling or gaining profit from items of The Nathan Hale Food Pantry will result in a termination of the participants' food pantry privileges.
- The information collected from this form is confidential. The use of this information will be used for monthly statistics needed by the Boston Food Warehouse, NHVOC demographics and productivity only.
